All-School News

Afternoon of the Arts 2022, this coming Saturday, April 30th!

Doors open at 1:30 pm with an art show, 2:00 pm Talents for the Lord Show, and dessert reception at intermission.

An afternoon of music, art, dance, comedy, drama, and surprise!

KPA has had an annual Talents for the Lord Show that has grown to showcase all the arts programs! Visual and three dimensional art will be on display, and PreK-12th grade students will be on stage in individual and group ensembles. Interested in our KPA Worship Team, theatre program, or debating whether to take art next year? Wondering what a 6th grade standup comedy act about KPA culture might come up with? Want to see a karate pre-black belt intensity kata set to music? Wondering who plays piano in our school?

Come check it out at KPA this Saturday – come early to shop at the Booster Club garage sale!

Thank you to all of the families that came and supported these talented singers!! God was glorified and praised by these young hearts!
WAY TO GO WARRIOR PRAISE CHOIR AND KINGDOM SINGERS!!!!

The Spirit Squad would like to thank all participants who came out for the mini cheer camp! They showcased their skills during the spring sports pep rally.

Grammar School News

Second graders participated in Heroes of Faith this week. Students researched a Biblical hero, created a costume and snack to reflect their hero, and wrote a research paper.
